

The BSA Mission: to prepare young people to make ethical and moral choices over their lifetimes by instilling in them the values of the Scout Oath and Law.

In 2019, the Cascade Pacific Council (CPC) worked diligently to inspire our 18,192 Scouts to "go play outdoors." Here are just some of the stats:

41k+ nights Scouts camped on CPC properties

14k+ youth participated in outdoor adventures

6k+ adults camped on CPC properties

1,385 girls participated in outdoor activities

While 8,385 adult volunteers guided our youth, our Scouting community was serving neighborhoods, schools, parks and more throughout the region including:

166k+ hours served in our community

1,140 hours served during Eagle Scout projects

110k+ pounds of food collected

200+ schools served

SERVE OUR COMMUNITY

2019 IMPACT AT-A-GLANCE

The CPC Vision: to become the most impactful youth organization in our region, building stronger communities and leaders of tomorrow.

Though girls have been involved in the BSA for decades through our Venturing and Exploring units, the CPC has become one of the nation's leaders in welcoming girls into Cub Scouts and Scouts BSA:

girls became Cub and Scouts BSA members 1,876

our rank out of 260 councils in female Scouts BSA units

51 girls-only Scouts BSA troops were started in October 2020 we will 10/20 celebrate our first female Eagle Scouts

Being a Scout in the CPC is a ton of fun and requires diligence and hard work. But the confidence and personal growth lasts a lifetime. Here are some of our Scouts' 2019 achievements:

16k+ skills-focused merit badges earned

10k+ rank advancements were achieved

520 Scouts attained the Eagle Scout rank

BELIEVE AND ACTIEVE

PATERE EVERY VOUTH CAN SCOVE. AND EVERY SCOUT CAN CAMP.

Our goal in the Cascade Pacific Council is that every youth in the region has an opportunity to become a Scout and that every Scout gets to go camping.

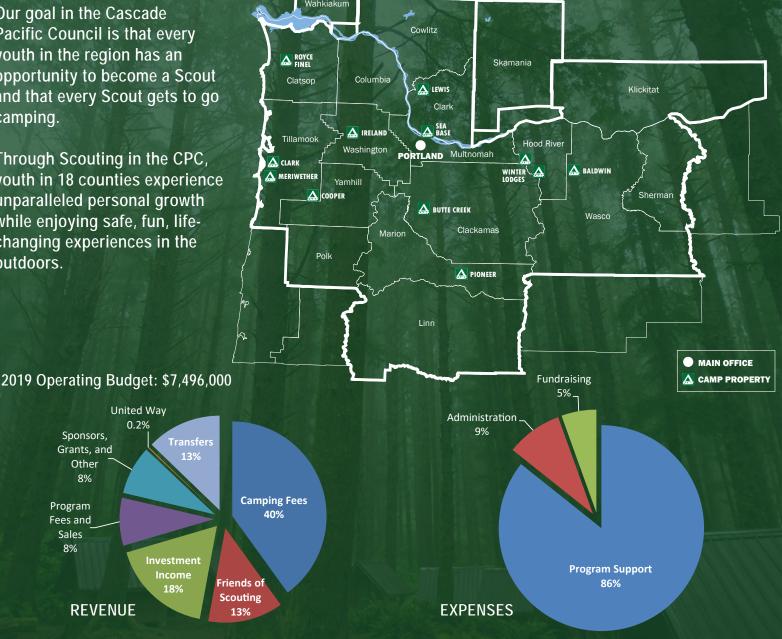

Through Scouting in the CPC, youth in 18 counties experience unparalleled personal growth while enjoying safe, fun, lifechanging experiences in the outdoors.
