OUR 2021 ACHIEVEMENTS

In a year of unknowns, thousands of kids and teens throughout the region lived out the manifestos they start learning from day one in the Boy Scouts of America: to do your best, help other people at all times and stay mentally and physically fit.

PERSEVERANCE

From meeting virtually, to in-person, and back again, Scouts of all ages continued to overcome obstacles. Thousands of personal goals were achieved from advancing in Scout ranks, to overcoming fears at summer camp to scaling mountain peaks.

Eagle Scout: the highest rank a Scout can attain in the Boy Scouts of America. For more than 100 years, it has been the pinnacle of achievement for tens of millions of youth. And despite a year cast in fear and doubt, our Scouts showed GRIT.

STORIES OF GRIT FROM SOME OF OUR 2021 EAGLE SCOUTS

"Scouting changed me by improving my skills as a speaker and a leader. (It has) made me want to help people. My plan is to work towards being a paramedic. Scouting has prepared me for (that) future."

- Jeff Kenyon, Troop 586
Gresham, OR

RESILIENCE

From food bank collections to clearing trails destroyed by wildfires, 16,000 local youth and adults continued to Scout and serve.

Meanwhile, generous donors supported a year of rebuilding and adventure for more than 6,000 camp attendees.

DID YOU KNOW? ...

Mentorship is key to positive youth development -
we are proud to have a 1:2 ratio of volunteer leaders supporting our Scouts!

"Perseverance is the biggest thing I've learned in Scouting. I just kept going no matter what it was and I was able to encourage other people that you just need to keep going until things get better."

- Kaitlyn Crowley, Troop 5797
Tigard, OR

"Scouts has given me confidence and the skills needed to deal with other people. Scouts gave me something to focus on during COVID quarantine. It helped to keep me focused through a difficult time for many."

- Gregory Killian, Troop 648
Vancouver, WA

GRIT LASTS FOREVER

Overcoming obstacles. Becoming a goal-getter, not just a goal-setter. Leading when no one else will. Growing in GRIT.

This is how we Scout in the Cascade Pacific Council of the Boy Scouts of America. And it's why we say "grit starts here" and that this "grit lasts forever."

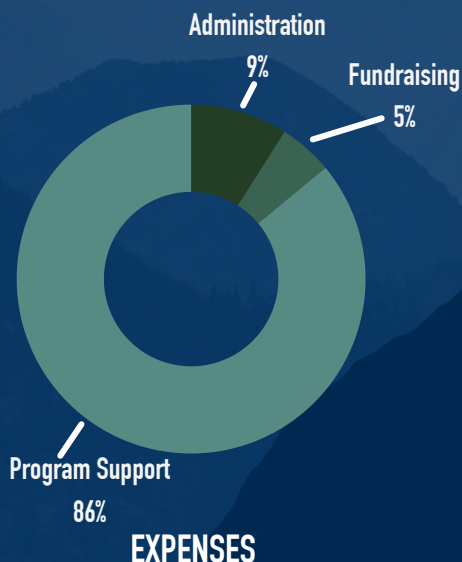

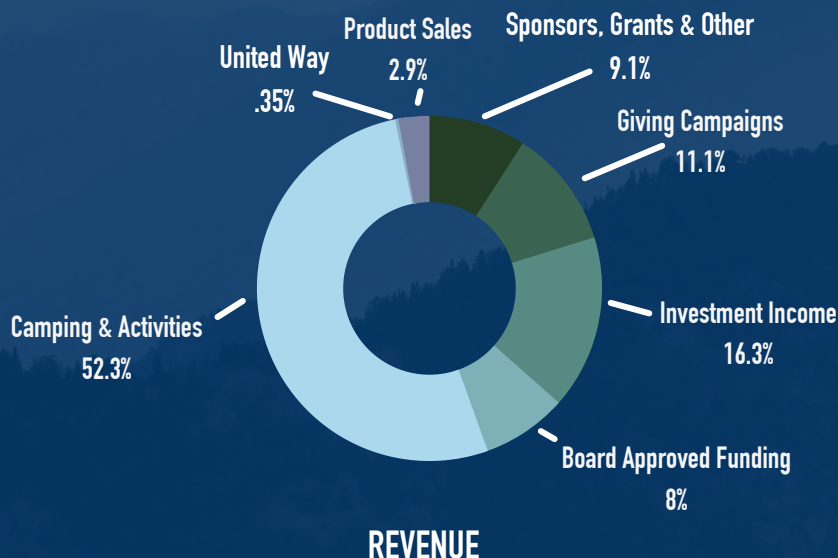

Scouts, leaders, parents and staff proved to the world in 2021 that they would live the truths found in Scout Oath and Scout Law no matter what the world had in store.

Join us in 2022 as we continue to make a positive impact on thousands of youth and families throughout the Pacific Northwest.
