

Sho Dozono

Sho Dozono is the former President and CEO of the Azumano Travel Group of Companies. He is a strong advocate of diversity and equal opportunity and a respected business and civic leader both in Portland and throughout the State of Oregon, devoting much of his time in service to the community.

He has served on many boards and received numerous appointments at the public and private levels such as the Port of Portland, Japanese American Citizens League, Portland Public Schools, Portland Art Museum, Spirit Mountain Community Fund, Portland Community College and Portland State University.

He was also a US History teacher and head wrestling coach at Grant High School from 1972-76.